WINE PAIRING PROGRAM

Our knowledgeable Sommeliers have curated two different flights of wine for each of our set menus that will take you on a journey to the best regions of Italy and beyond.

Allow yourself to be guided by us and discover, or rediscover, wine that will enhance the flavor of the menu carefully designed by our chefs.

CHEFS MENU WINE PAIRING

CLASSIC PAIRING

95PP

2022 | Fattoria San Lorenzo, Le Oche Verdicchio | Marche, Italy

12 months of aging on its lees has given this herbaceous Verdicchio a rich and almost salty texture. The palate is weighted yet sapid.

2023 | Elena Walch, Blauburgunder | Alto Adige, Italy

This female lead winery produces a very precise and elegant Pinot Noir full of freshness.

The acidity of this high-altitude pinot brings balance to the rich waxy.

2021 | Perticaia, Trebbiano Spoletino | Umbria, Italy

Crafted in the only Central Italian region away from a littoral, this wine shows vegetal and grassy notes.

2022 | Cordero di Montezemolo, Langhe Nebbiolo | Piemonte, Italy

19th generation winemaker Alberto is carrying a long tradition of mastering Nebbiolo. The varietal is known for its refined tannins which are the perfect match with our famous Cotoletta a la Milanese.

2022 | Pierro Gatti, Moscato Frizzante | Piemonte, Italy

Light and slightly bubbly, this is the perfect pair with a creamy gelato.

SOMMELIER PAIRING

2023 | Quintarelli, Bianco Secco | Veneto, Italy

Worldly know winery in the heart of Veneto, extremely famous for their Amarone but we often forget this white blend.

There is a lots of Minerality, and tensions lifted up by a great tropical body and an almost salty finish.

2021 | Elena Walch Beyond the Clouds Chardonnay | Alto Adige, Italy

Alto Adige's first super cuvée was born in 2000. Ever since, Elena Walch and her two daughters have been producing one of Italy's best chardonnays.

2022 | Ca' Marcanda Vistamare | Tuscany, Italy

The only white wine produced by the Gaja family in Tuscany is a textural blend of Vermentino, Fiano and Viognier. The generous and slightly marine nose is followed by a remarkable complexity of roundness and herbaceous notes.

2019 | Elvio Cogno, Barolo Cascina Nuova | Piemonte, Italy

Young vines can make a great Barolo that can be enjoyed without having to wait 20 years. This is what Valter wanted to prove, and it has been achieved with brio. This textbook Barolo shows intense aromas of rose petals and present itself in a delicate tannin structure true to its origine.

2011 | Château La Tour Blanche, Sauternes, 1er Grand Cru Classé | Bordeaux, France

One of my longtime favorite Châteaux in Sauternes. The Château, and its vineyards, was gifted by his previous owner to the French government in 1909 with one condition: they had to create a winemaking school within its walls. 2011 was a brilliant vintage for La Tour Blanch and the wine shows hint of confit pineapple and vanilla.

SIGNATURE MENU WINE PAIRING

CLASSIC PAIRING

2022 | Alfio Cosentino, Vigna Don Paolo, Etna Bianco | Sicilia, Italy

This expression of Carricante from the volcanic soils of Mt. Etna displays an energy bursting with citrus oils, white flowers and a good pinch of salt. The palate is rich while still having bright acid to wrap around the fruit.

2023 | Domaine de la Suffrene, Bandol | Provence, France

Embrace the holiday feeling with this rich rosé from the famous hills of Bandol; perfect combination with our lobster pasta.

2022 | Cantalici, Baruffo Chianti Classico | Tuscany, Italy

This is Italy's most famous red wine. A gorgeous Sangiovese, with a hint of rusticity; enhancing the charred flavor of the rib-eye.

2018 | Ornella Molon, Bianco di Ornella | Veneto, Italy

This blend of late harvest Verduzzo with the addition of vine dried Sauvignon and Traminer make a full bodied wine with a dense bouquet of raisins and candied fruit balanced with a fresh line of acidity.

2022 | Whittmann, Aurlede Riesling GG | Rheinhessen, Germany

From cult German winemaker, Philipp Whittmann this Riesling is super clear, refined and elegant with a deep and pure nose thanks to vines planted in 1949 and 1959. Generous exotic fruit and spice are balanced by a pure and mineral structure.

2021 | Elena Walch Beyond the Clouds Chardonnay | Alto Adige, Italy

Alto Adige's first super cuvée was born in 2000. Ever since, Elena Walch and her two daughters have been producing one of Italy's best chardonnays.

2018 | Colleoni, Rosso di Montalcino | Tuscany, Italy

In 2018 Marino made a strict selection for his Riserva and decided to declassify the grapes from his Brunello di Montalcino vineyards into this amazing Rosso. This is dense, serious and highly balanced with mineral notes and great vibrancy.

2020 | Tenute Dettori, Moscadeddu | Sardegna, Italy

Tenute Dettori has been leading the way on a natural approach to Sardinian winemaking. Famous for its floral and exotic aromas, this Moscato brings sweetness with a vibrant acidity, with a hint of saltiness.

GAJA

"Cabernet is to John Wayne, as Nebbiolo is to Marcello Mastroianni. Cabernet has a strong personality, open, easily understood and dominating. If Cabernet were a man, he would do his duty every night in the bedroom, but always in the same way. Nebbiolo, on the other hand, would be the brooding, quiet man in the corner, harder to understand but infinitely more complex."

— Angelo Gaja

AMBASSADORS OF ANGELO GAJA

Pioneer at their time, rebel during their prime, the Gaja family have always been highly regarded as world class winemakers.

Since the creation of the Domaine in 1859, the Gaja family has been leading the industry in the region and have reached the status of cult winemakers.

In the late forties, Giovanni Gaja, Angelo's father, took over the business and started the revolution. He wanted to put their name on the label, showing that the importance of the winemaker was not second to the terroir. The famous label was born showcasing the large letter G A J A.

In 1961, Angelo takes the lead and starts looking for more land to grow vines.

1964: acquisition of Sori San Lorenzo vineyard; 1971: acquisition of the Sori tilde and Costa Russi vineyards. As always, Angelo decides to follow his instinct and refuses to bend in front of the consortium and the many rules of the DOC. He removes his three single vineyards from the famous Barbaresco appellation and declassifies them as "Langhe".

The rest is history... but the Gaja story does not end here.

Angelo wants to conquer the rest of Italy and slowly explore the idea of purchasing other vineyards. With very high standards and a lot of patience, they purchase vineyards in Tuscany and further on, in Sicily.

Pieve Santa Restituta was purchased in 1994, Ca'Marcanda land was planted in 1997.

The project Idda took shape in 2016, but Angelo intention to make wine on the volcano land started way before the nineties.

Today the family owns 110 hectares in Piemonte, 26 in Montalcino, 126 in bolgheri and co-owned 20 hectares in Sicily.

As very proud Ambassadors of the Gaja family we have the luxury to offer you some amazing bottles from their collection. Take advantage of this to discover them by the glass at a very advantageous price.

AMBASSADORS OF ANGELO GAJA

PIEMONTE

This is where it all started. Kings of Barbaresco, Master of Nebbiolo; The Gaja never cease to impress with the elegance and precision of their wines.

The Whites of Piemonte

First released in 1983, "Gaja & Rey" spilled a lot of ink. Planting Chardonnay within the boundaries of Barbaresco was considered an heresy at the time. It is now one of Italy's finest white wines.

Rossj-Bass gets his name from the Rossj vineyard named after Rossana, Angelo's second daughter. The wine is a blend of Chardonnay with a hint of Sauvignon blanc.

2022	Rossj-Bass	515
2021	Gaja & Rey	1800

Langhe, Sito Moresco

Always lead by Nebbiolo, this great wine is blended with old vines Barbera from his three most famous vineyards.

		Glass	Bottle
2022	Sito Moresco	65	290
2021	Sito Moresco		365
2019	Sito Moresco		350

Barbaresco

Gaja's Barbaresco is sourced from 14 different vineyards over the communes of Barbaresco and Treiso.

The grapes are fermented separately plot by plot & aged separately for 12 months in French oak. The component parts are then blended then aged another 12 months in Slavonian oak botti.

2017	Barbaresco	1100
2020	Barbaresco	315 1400

Single Vineyards of Barbaresco

The single crus used to be blended with Barbera but have been 100% Nebbiolo in recent vintages.

"Sori" is local dialect for "sunny," and it is used for the best vineyard sites with great sun exposure.

Sori San Lorenzo is a very steep vineyard near rivers with a limestone rich soil absorbing any excess water. San Lorenzo is the Patron Protecting Alba's Cathedral. The family kept the name after buying the vineyard of the church.

Sori Tildin is an amphitheater-shaped vineyard at the top of the hill above the Costa Russi vineyard. The soil is sandier and warmer here, and vines are planted vertically and at a higher density. Tildin was the diminutive of Angelo's Grand mother, Clothilde.

2021	Barbaresco, Costa Russi	3000
2020	Barbaresco, Costa Russi	3100
2014	Barbaresco, Costa Russi	2620

2020	Barbaresco, Sori San Lorenzo	3400

Barolo

Dagromis is a blend of 7 crus. There is a beautiful mosaic here of both vine age and terroir, starting with vines planted in 1965.

Sperss, Nostalgia in Piemontese dialect, is a vineyard in the heart of Serralunga that was dear to Angelo's Father and is the first step of the family outside of Barbaresco.

Conteisa, Contest in Piemontese Dialect refers to the 100 years old dispute over the ownership of the Cerequio vineyard: la Morra and Barolo. The wine is usually more sensual and richer.

AMBASSADORS OF ANGELO GAJA

TOSCANA

Pieve Santa Restituta is the first step of Angelo outside of Piemonte. The vineyard was purchased in 1994 and many redevelopments work have been done to align the estate with Angelo's winemaking beliefs.

The Ca'Marcanda project was propelled by Angelo Gaja's ambition to challenge himself with Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot. After over 20 meetings with the previous owners the 70ha site was purchased at the end of 1996. The name Ca'Marcanda is derived from these protracted negotiations and is a term in the Piemontese dialect that means 'house of endless negotiations'.

The Whites of Tuscany

The Vistamare Vineyard (Sea View in Italian) is located near Bibbona, just outside of the Bolgheri appellation. It is a blend of Vermentino, with a 20% Fiano and 10% barrel aged viognier.

		Glass	Bottle
2022	Vistamare	45	200

Bolgheri – CA'MARCANDA

More approachable in its youth, and just outside of the Bolgheri appellation; Promis is mainly composed of Merlot, with some Syrah and a bit of Cab franc.

Magari is an Italian expression: "If only it was true...!", "Maybe...". It carries a sort of irony which leads people to smile, without showing off the great commitment and determination associated with the Ca' Marcanda project. Camarcanda is the pinnacle of the production.

2021	Promis		350
2020	Camarcanda		1040
2013	Magari	95	450

Montalcino – PIEVE SANTA RESTITUTA

The Brunello is a combination of all the vineyards in Montalcino owned by the Gaja Family.

Rennina is a blend of three non-adjacent vineyards surrounding the parish church, in an area called Rennina in ancient times.

Sugarille is a single vineyard facing south and covering a surface of 4.5 hectares mainly consisting of clay and limestone, with the presence of galestro.

SICILIA

IDDA

Meaning 'She', it is an affectionate name in Sicilian dialect; used by locals to refer to Mount Etna.

South Facing slopes on the Etna are famous for its red wines. 80% of the entire Etna slopes are planted with Nerello Mascalese. Here again, the family decided to go against the trend and to plant mainly a white grape: Caricante. The vines comes from 2 vineyards both above 600m above sea level and show all the minerality the volcanic soils have to offer. Most of the Idda Production will be white.

Champagne

A Champagne winemaker's goal is to achieve complexity, and the most desirable notes of brioche and toasted bread. Refreshing acidity is balanced by a secret sweet recipe called "liqueur d'expédition". Made using the traditional method, as is Franciacorta, this is Italy vs France's greatest competition.

Croatina is a red Italian variety that is grown primarily in the Oltrepo Pavese region of Lombardy and Emilia Romagna. Schioppettino is a dark-skinned grape variety native to Friuli-Venezia Giulia in the far northeastern corner of Italy. It was saved from extinction in the 1970s, and is now regaining the respect and recognition it once enjoyed. Most Schioppettino wines are medium-bodied, deeply-colored, aromatic on the nose and spicy to the palate.

Nebbiolo

Native to Valtellina Valley, Lombardia, Nebbiolo is thought to derive its name from the Piedmontese dialect 'nebia', meaning "fog"; it's considered to be a "terroir-expressive" variety, in that it picks up more of the earth, soil, and climate characteristics. It is also an old grape, first being referenced as far back as the 1st Century! Salute.

LIGHTS ON - PAOLO SCAVINO

Founded in 1921 in Castiglione Falletto from Lorenzo Scavino and his son Paolo, it is now lead by skilled Enrico and his two daughters Enrica & Elisa. Through over 60 years of experience his focus has been to invest in the cru of Barolo.

Below is a screenshot of some of the most famous, and some lesser known, crus part of the 11 commune that composed the entire Barolo appellation.

LIGHTS ON - PAOLO SCAVINO

The Art of Blending

Barolo, like in many other regions, started as a blended wine. Micro-vinification and identifying 'terroir' has lead to a raise of single vineyard wines. Most producers, on top of their single vineyards, still challenge themselves to create the best expression of a regional Barolo as they see it.

Barolo

This is the commune that lends its name to the region, and the wine. In the center of the region, wines are usually rich in tannins with a slight austerity. Cannubi is considered the Grand Cru of the area and one of the most acclaimed vineyards.

2015	Paolo Scavino Barolo Cannubi	530
2009	Paolo Scavino Barolo Cannubi	635

La Morra

It produces more elegant and less structured wine. Scavino's vineyard has a full south exposure: the grapes are small, with great concentration and sweet tannins. The riserva is produced only in the years considered worthy.

2016	Barolo Riserva Rocche dell'Annunziata	1025
2013	Barolo Riserva Rocche dell'Annunziata	1100

Roddi

Up north in the DOC, it is tiny, consisting of just one Cru of high quality: Bricco Ambrogio. Ambrogio has a perfect south/southeast exposure, and its soils are rich with limestone and marl. About 20 years ago most of it was acquired by Scavino, and they retain a near-monopole.

2017	Barolo 'Bricco Ambrogio'	350

SerraLunga

Serralunga d'Alba marks the eastern border of the Barolo zone. If a classic style of Barolo combines deep structure and longevity, then the Barolos of Serralunga are certainly among the most classic; these wines require time, but offers great rewards at their peak.

2019	Paolo Scavino, Barolo Prapo	470
------	-----------------------------	-----

Castiglione Falletto

With a good percentage of sand on the soil, the wines are often more fragrant and less tannic than those from Serralunga and Monforte.

2009	Barolo 'Bric del Fiasc'	635
2008	Barolo 'Bric del Fiasc, Riserva'	2300

Verduno

That it is tempting to lump this in as one of six "major" villages rather than as apart from the traditional five, but Verduno is a more like a star player among the minors.

2018	Barolo Monvigliero	440
2014	Barolo Monvigliero	400
2011	Barolo Monvigliero	575

Novello

Geologically an extension of the Village of Barolo. Like Verduno, there is an argument to make that this should be one of the majors. It holds one of Barolo's greatest sites: Ravera.

ROSSI - RED WINES

Sangiovese

Internationally acclaimed varietal; Sangiovese originated in the heart of Italy, Tuscany. With flavours of cherries, rosemary, leather and sometimes plum in hot vintages, it's elegance is uncontested. Mostly present in the world famous region of Chianti & Montalcino, you will be able to find juicier expressions of this grape in others regions such as Marche.
